S. Wiretaps of Yippie Ruled Illegal to obtain an indictment against Hoffman for allegedly assaulting a police officer and inciting a riot during the Mayday antiwar demonstrations here this year.

Smith found that the wiretaps, for which no judicial warrant had been obtained by the government, violated Hoffman's Fourth Amendment rights against unreasonable searches and seizures.

The result of Smith's finding is that Hoffman must be allowed to see transcripts of the conversations two days before his trial here on the charges in the indictment.

The central wiretap issue, however-whether the Nixon administration can, as it claims, legally make wiretaps on domestic radicals without a court order on national security grounds—remains to be decided in a case before the Supreme Court.

The government has apparently chosen to deal with dis-

Smith examined the four fairs."

By Philip A. McCombs sident demestic organizations, wiretap, transmints and comes the fifth wiretap transmints of the same manner as it does other in the same manner as it does other in the series of the large in the fifth wiretap. The same manner as it does other in the series of the large in the fifth wiretap. The same manner as it does other in the series of the large in the same manner as it does other in the series of the large in the same manner as it does other in the series of the large in the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the series of the same manner as it does other in the same manner as it doe lewis Smith Jr. has declared dilegal four wiretaps by the opinion issued Tuesday.

Someth said he found "not versations involving Yippte leader Abbie Hoffman.

The wiretaps, described by the government as national security wiretaps authorized by Attorney General John N. Mitchell at the request of Feji Mitchell at the request of Feji Mitchell at the request of Feji Director J. Edgar Hoover, were used by the government against wrote Smith in his 10-page them to Mitchell in a sealed the revealed to Hoffman.

envelope. He night a clear However, of the other four, idistinction between on the size fields wiretime to constitutional provision audionestic organizations for the request of the impact of foreign affairs the purpose of gathering for the impact of foreign affairs the purpose of gathering for the side of the size field in the conduct of foreign are dividual rights, have been four fairs." jested by the Eugreme